Subject: Vote NO on Senate Bill 28, House Bill 258 and Senate Bill 145

Jan 26, 2018

State Representative Sarah LaTourette
Vern Riffe Center, 14th Floor
77 South High Street
Columbus, OH 43215-6111

Dear State Representative LaTourette,

As constituents of your house district, we write to urge you to vote NO on Senate Bill 28, House Bill 258 and Senate Bill 145.

Abortion is one of the safest medical procedures available to women and yet these bills would make it illegal in Ohio. Abortion is a deeply personal and often complex decision for a woman and her family. Women don't turn to politicians for advice about mammograms, prenatal care, or cancer treatments; politicians should not be involved in a woman's personal medical decisions about her pregnancy.

Conservatives in the Ohio Senate recently passed Senate Bill 28, an abortion ban that requires the burial of fetal tissue, imposing a medically unnecessary funeral ritual on patients choosing abortion. There is clearly no purpose of Senate Bill 28 other than to stigmatize and shame women who have already made the personal decision to have an abortion.

House Bill 258 would prevent women from getting abortions as early as six weeks into a pregnancy, before some women even know they are pregnant. It would take away a woman's right to make her own medical decisions before she would even know she had a decision to make. Senate Bill 145 bans the most common form of second trimester abortion, the D&E procedure. The only alternative to this procedure would be to induce a woman to go into early labor, significantly increasing the risk of harm to the woman and establishing yet another financial barrier.

These types of abortion bans have been struck down as unconstitutional by state and federal courts across the country. There is no question that these bills are unconstitutional. Whenever similar measures have passed in other states, they have only led to costly litigation.

Senate Bill 28, House Bill 258 and Senate Bill 145, in addition to the other bills being considered and passed by the Ohio General Assembly, are part of a larger coordinated attack on Ohioans' constitutional right to abortion. Each of these bans effectively shames and punishes women for their right to bodily autonomy and takes away the freedom to make the best decision for herself and her family.

Please vote NO on Senate Bill 28, House Bill 258 and Senate Bill 145.

Sincerely,

Mr. William Armstrong

Volume #87, Report #18 -- Friday, January 26, 2018

Soccer Stadium, Convention Center, Cultural Projects Highlight Metro Areas' Capital Budget Priorities

Cincinnati soccer boosters are hoping to score $4 million in the state capital budget with the goal of bringing a major league soccer franchise to the city.

The request is part of a much larger package of infrastructure initiatives that local governments in Hamilton County are hoping will lead to a 21,000-seat soccer stadium and a Major League Soccer franchise for the city.

In Toledo, economic development leaders are looking to the state capital budget process for $10 million to cover convention center improvements. In Columbus, local leaders want $5 million for upgrades at the Center of Science and Industry downtown, while Cleveland is requesting $5 million of its own for riverfront improvements.

The requests are among many big-ticket items local governments and development groups are targeting for the local projects portion of the coming state capital appropriations bill.

Legislators and metro-area economic development groups have submitted their requests for the funding measure. The bill, which is also expected to include reappropriations for ongoing capital projects, is being eyed for introduction later in February and passage by April. (See Gongwer Ohio Report, November 24, 2017)

The local projects make up a relatively small portion of the capital spending bill, which includes funding for other large state projects, but usually consumes most of the planning and negotiations among lawmakers. The capital budget for last biennium totaled $2.62 billion in appropriations, but just $160 million of that was for community projects. Officials say the preliminary funding target for local projects is less this cycle at about $130 million.

Senate President Larry Obhof (R-Medina) said this week the overall total is also expected to be lower than it was two years ago. (See Gongwer Ohio Report, January 24, 2018)

Cincinnati Region: The highlight of the Cincinnati area's requests is the FC Cincinnati stadium proposal, but that project accounts for a fraction of the nearly $22 million in requests from the region.

Other major items include $2 million from the Cincinnati Museum Center for a project to advance STEM education, and $2.5 million for the expansion of capacity and recovery units at the Hamilton County Justice Center.

The region is also proposing $1.25 million for the Cincinnati Playhouse in the Park, and $1 million for building envelope improvements at the Cincinnati Art Museum.

Dayton Region: The region's top priority in the Montgomery County region's list is the Arcade Innovation HUB, a joint venture between the University of Dayton and The Entrepreneurs Center. The region requested $2 million for the HUB, which would include mixed-use space for academic, research and experiential learning programs from UD and programs to help startup companies through TEC. The total project is expected to cost more than $41 million.

Another top request in Montgomery County is $1 million for a $17 million renovation project for YWCA Dayton's flagship facility.

The region also requested money for projects in surrounding counties, led by nearly $1.9 million for the Greene County Career Center. That project, called the Take Flight Initiative, is designed to provide aviation, aerospace, engineering, manufacturing and technology training. The overall price tag for that project is $60 million.

Area officials also requested $2.2 million for the modernization of the archives center at Wright State University. That project would include environmental controls to preserve records and the space to house 16,000 linear feet of collections and more than 20,000 books and journals. The total cost is anticipated to be $8.2 million.

Cleveland Region: The Greater Cleveland Partnership's recommendations are led by a $5 million request for the second phase of restoring the Irishtown Bend on the city's riverfront. The work would include stabilizing the bulkheads along the bend and starting work to turn the top of the hillside into a public green space. (See Gongwer Ohio Report, December 18, 2017)

CCH Development Corporation, part of the MetroHealth System, asked for $1.25 million for a neighborhood innovation space along the W. 25th Street corridor, and Karamu House asked for $2 million as part of a $4 million capital campaign aimed at redesigning its campus.

Columbus Region: The biggest ask on the Columbus Partnership's wish list was for $5 million for the redevelopment of COSI. That project has a total cost of $40 million.

The group is also asking for $2 million as part of a larger project for a 35-story tower where the parking lot of North Market now sits. The Market Tower grand atrium and arcade project is expected to cost $115 million in total.

Another request comes from the Columbus Regional Airport Authority, which is asking for $2 million as part of a $4.85 million air cargo terminal ramp expansion.

The Columbus region also asked for $2 million for park development on former quarry land in Northwest Columbus. The overall cost of the project is $20 million.

Toledo Region: The list from the Toledo Regional Chamber of Commerce included the biggest single project ask: $10 million for the renovation of SeaGate Convention Center, including the renovation of existing space and the construction of a new ballroom.

Another big project from northwest Ohio is a $5 million request for the first phase of changes to the Toledo Museum of Art. That project includes the installation of new elevators to make it more accessible, the renovation of the Glass Crafts Building and the creation of an art support building.

Other big projects out of Toledo include the Imagination Station Theater Experience, for which the chamber is asking for $3 million and a new senior center and $2 million for the Wood County Committee on Aging.

Akron Region: The Greater Akron Chamber's list of recommendations total $16.2 million, led by $1.5 million for the Akron Civic Theater restoration and expansion and $2.5 million for Hudson's downtown district parking facility.

The Akron Civic Theater project is expected to cost a total of $6.35 million, with the anticipated project cost of the Hudson parking facility at $5.56 million.

Bigger projects that the chamber is requesting help with include the Akron Community Health Center's One Campus Project, with a total cost of more than $38 million. The chamber is requesting $1.14 million from the capital budget for that project.

Other big projects include the Barberton Municipal Justice Center, with the city seeking $1 million in the capital budget of a total project cost of $14.3 million.

Youngstown Region: The Youngstown/Warren Regional Chamber list of priorities include $7 million for the Mahoning Valley Innovation and Commercialization Center.

Another major project requested was a community literacy, workforce and cultural center in Campbell, for which it asked for $3 million. The chamber also requested $1.4 million for a transitional housing project helping veterans in Mahoning County.

In Trumbull County, the chamber requested a number of projects, including $1.8 million for the City of Niles to modernize the Eastwood Field baseball facility. That project would include a new video board, energy efficient lighting upgrades and a new playing surface.

The Eastwood Field project and others in Trumbull County also appeared in requests from the office of Sen. Sean O'Brien (D-Bazetta). Both lists of requests also included $2.3 million for the construction of a compressed natural gas fueling station.

Lawmakers See Data As Key In Examining Medicaid Long-Term Care Changes

A legislative panel began its work this week examining whether the state should move Medicaid coverage of long-term services and supports into managed care, and a top member of the committee said the biggest factor will be identifying cost savings and quality gains.

The Managed Long-Term Services and Supports Study Committee was created in the biennial budget (HB 49) and tasked with further examination of an issue that at times dominated the debate on the spending measure.

Gov. John Kasich's version of the budget proposed folding long-term care, which accounts for a sizable chunk of Medicaid spending, into managed care as part of an effort to reduce costs and create incentives for care improvements. Nursing home representatives pushed back against the issue, and the General Assembly removed the plan with a prohibition on making the switch.

Gov. Kasich vetoed the legislature's effort to block the change, but the Department of Medicaid later said it wouldn't pursue the effort. (See Gongwer Ohio Report, August 29, 2017)

As the committee begins its work, co-chair Rep. Mark Romanchuk (R-Mansfield) said it's evaluating whether the change would lower costs and improve care. During the budget process, a focus was on problems with the implementation of the MyCare Ohio demonstration project, which moved some Medicaid long-term care recipients into managed care, alongside their Medicare health benefits.

"We know there've been a lot of implementation problems, and that is not the task of the study committee to look at implementation," Rep. Romanchuk said in an interview. "The task is if we go to an MLTSS system, will it save money and will it increase quality. That's part of the dataset we're looking to collect."

One major concern Rep. Romanchuk raised was the lack of data to help lawmakers predict exactly what effects the move would have. The state's experience with MyCare is informative, he said, but it doesn't exactly reflect what a full MLTSS system would look like.

"We have a unique situation in Ohio where we can look at the MyCare system versus the non-MyCare system," he said. "There are some differences that need to be normalized because most of the MyCare system currently is in urban areas, it's urban versus rural, so we have to normalize the numbers to take that into account."

Because MyCare included Medicare coverage of health costs, while MLTSS would not, the two systems aren't perfectly analogous, he said. The cost savings and other results from the demonstration project could still be helpful.

"That's the question at hand: Has MyCare helped with turning the cost curve and also providing quality?" Rep. Romanchuk asked.

In its first meeting this week, the committee heard from the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services on issues at the federal level, and from the Department of Medicaid on the reasons for the proposed integration. ODM also reported on the status of MyCare.

In its presentation, ODM said MLTSS would provide care coordination, provide enrollees with more choice and allow the state to implement value-based payments.

State Income Tax Filing Under New Brackets Begins Monday

Ohioans next week can begin filing state income tax returns under a new bracket structure which eliminated payments for low-income earners.

On Monday, the Department of Taxation will begin accepting 2017 state income tax returns. More than five million Ohioans are expected to file by the deadline on April 17, the agency said.

Those filers will fall into seven tax brackets - two less than in previous years as a result of changes made in the biennial budget (HB 490).

Earners who made less than $10,650 last year are not subject to income tax under the budget modifications. Those filers previously fell into the bottom two brackets, paying at a rate of less than 1%.

The new lowest bracket, for earners up to $16,000, will pay a rate of 1.98% and the top earners, those with incomes above $213,000, will pay 4.997%. (Tax Rates)

ODT is still reviewing recently enacted federal tax changes to determine if Ohio's tax system will be impacted and whether additional tax law changes will need made, spokesman Gary Gudmundson said.

A handful of states have rushed to change tax laws after estimates showed some taxpayers would gain while others would see significantly higher tax bills because of federal updates.

One aspect of state income taxes that will remain the same this year is the identification quiz, which ODT implemented in 2014 to combat fraud.

Tax Commissioner Joe Testa said the random quizzes have been successful in ensuring fraudulent tax returns aren't being filed using stolen personal information.

"The good news is that we have seen some significant reductions in fraud attempts," Mr. Testa said. "Last year, there were 60% fewer falsified tax returns and a 90% drop in the dollar amount of illegitimate refund requests. Our security efforts are making a difference, but we can't let our guard down."

The quiz, which asks individuals to answer personal financial questions, has been updated in recent years following complaints about difficulty and frequency of singling out filers. (See Gongwer Ohio Report, January 13, 2017)

ODT is encouraging online income tax filing, estimating that those who do so will receive refunds in 15 business days or less. Ohioans who file paper returns should expect refunds in 8-10 weeks, the agency said. More than 85% of Ohioans have filed electronically in previous years.

Legislators Apologize For Crude Comments

A roast for outgoing House Republican Chief of Staff Mike Dittoe has resulted in two lawmakers offering apologies to colleagues and others.

Rep. Bill Seitz (R-Cincinnati) and Sen. Matt Huffman (R-Lima) have both apologized for remarks made during the event at the Athletic Club of Columbus that many - including at least one lawmaker who was the target of one of the jokes - found offensive.

In a letter to Speaker Cliff Rosenberger (R-Clarksville), Rep. Seitz apologized for his "ill-advised commentary."

Rep. Seitz reportedly made a joke that referenced Rep. Candice Keller (R-Middletown) and former Rep. Diana Fessler.

"I would like to express my deep regret and remorse for my remarks that took place on Tuesday evening at the Athletic Club of Columbus and for any shame that was brought upon the Ohio House of Representatives," Rep. Seitz wrote in a letter to Speaker Rosenberger and members of the House. "I take full responsibility for my words in their entirety. The comments I made at the event were mine and mine alone."

"Specifically, to State Representative Candice Keller and former State Representative Diana Fessler, I offer my sincerest apologies for any distress or embarrassment I may have caused. My words were irresponsible as a member of this esteemed institution and as a member of the House leadership."

Rep. Keller, who was not in attendance, said in an interview that she was "shocked" to learn of the comments but that she appreciates the way in which leadership handled the situation.

"Vulgarity and name calling of female conservative colleagues is completely unacceptable," she said. "I think there was incredible damage done to our party."

Rep. Seitz went on in his letter to say that his words "tarnished an otherwise celebratory event."

"I am again truly sorry to everyone in attendance, including staff, others not in attendance, and those who were the subject of my ill-advised commentary that were negatively impacted by my remarks," he wrote. "I look forward to offering my sincerest apologies in person at the next caucus."

Speaker Rosenberger replied in a letter that he is "disheartened by the careless and insensitive remarks," calling them "irresponsible and not appropriate as a representative and, more importantly, as a member of my leadership team."

"Going forward I expect your actions to be more thoughtful and your behavior more respectful to others. As an elected leader of this chamber, it is your responsibility to set an example that others can follow and not to be the cause of disruption," he wrote.

Speaker Rosenberger also directed Rep. Seitz to contact and personally apologize to Rep. Keller and Ms. Fessler, for whom Mr. Dittoe worked early in his House career.

Rep. Keller said she is prepared to accept Rep. Seitz's apology.

"I'm a Christian, and so my faith requires that I do that," she said. "I think in the future there must be a change in his action and his attitude. Women, we are here and we are not going away."

She also said she plans to speak out Tuesday in caucus and let her fellow members know that the remarks were unacceptable.

"That attitude, that Mad Men 1960s attitude, must be done away with," she said.

Sen. Huffman also issued an apology of his own.

"I understand why people at the event were offended, and I apologize," he said in a statement released by the Senate Republican Caucus. "I am truly sorry."

Caucus spokesman John Fortney added that Senate President Larry Obhof (R-Medina) "expressed his strong disappointment and disapproval" in a meeting with Sen. Huffman.

"The need for any further action will be evaluated as needed," he said.

The comments came approximately one week after members of the House took part in mandatory harassment training driven by recent resignations from the Senate and House.

BWC Board Votes To Lower Rates For State Agencies

The Bureau of Workers' Compensation Board of Directors on Friday approved a rate cut for state agencies.

The average contribution rate for state agencies in the pay-as-you-go program will fall by 7.8% based on the board's actions. However, the contribution of an individual state agency will rise or fall by varying amounts based on its actual recent experience and expected claim costs during the next fiscal year.

The impact of the lower contribution rate is expected to total $3.1 million.

The rate level approved by the board will result in the collection of about $37.4 million in contributions during the next fiscal year.

It marks the sixth consecutive year in which contribution rates on average fell for state agencies. Since 2011, rates for state agencies have been reduced by one-third.

"We're really looking to fund next year's payments for claims regardless of the date of injury," BWC spokeswoman Melissa Vince said of the rationale for the rate cuts. "So it's kind of different than the private employers and the majority of others that have more of an insurance program. We're estimating based on their payment history."

The state agency program has a projected surplus of $21.2 million at the beginning of the next fiscal year, which includes a planned return of $1.55 million to universities this fiscal year.

The board also voted to approve an 8.9% increase in the average managed care organization rate for the state agency's pay-as-you-go program, which will result in the collection of about $5.7 million during the next fiscal year.

That change is expected to cost an additional $465,000.

The combined impact of the contribution rate and MCO cost changes will result in an average decrease of 5.9%.

Total savings are expected to be $2.3 million.

Dems Pan Redistricting Plan; Schiavoni Camp Hits Cordray On ECOT; Rosenberger Endorses Collinsworth; Super PAC Backs Renacci...

The leaders of the Statehouse's minority caucuses raised concerns Friday about a proposal (SJR 5) to change the way in which congressional districts are drawn.

"Unfortunately, the Republican plan would only change the way a majority party could manipulate districts in the future. In fact, the GOP proposals would continue the problem of unfair congressional districts by writing gerrymandering into our state constitution," Rep. Fred Strahorn (D-Dayton) and Sen. Kenny Yuko (D-Richmond Hts.) said.

"We want the citizens of Ohio to know that Democrats in the legislature remain dedicated to achieving meaningful reform. There is still time to negotiate and reach an agreement."

The Ohio Legislative Black Caucus also called on fellow lawmakers to change the bill to address gerrymandering.

"Gerrymandering has turned the idea of the ballot box being America's great equalizer on its head, allowing politicians to choose their voters rather than having voters choose their politicians," said OLBC President and Rep. Stephanie Howse (D-Cleveland). "SJR5 only makes what's wrong with current law worse. SJR5 keeps the authority to redraw districts within the state legislature and eliminates key controls that seek to end rigged districts and give Ohio voters fair representation."

Added Sen. Vernon Sykes (D-Akron): "Our goal isn't to limit ways a map can be gerrymandered. Our goal is to end gerrymandering all together, and SJR5 doesn't accomplish that."

Lawmakers are scheduled to consider the proposal in committee on Tuesday, and floor votes could follow later in the week.

ECOT Shot: The Democratic gubernatorial primary is heating up, with the campaign of Sen. Joe Schiavoni (D-Boardman) taking a shot at Rich Cordray.

After the former head of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau took to Twitter to blast the Electronic Classroom of Tomorrow in a series of Tweets, State Board of Education member and Sen. Schiavoni's No. 2 on the ticket pounced.

Stephanie Dodd pointed out that Mr. Cordray accepted campaign donations from ECOT founder Bill Lager on two separate occasions.

"Spare us the sermon, Rich," she wrote in a Tweet. "You took Bill Lager's money in 2006 and money from #ECOT's COO in 2008."

Mr. Cordray accepted a $500 donation in 2006 during his campaign for the treasurer's office and $100 in 2008 during his attorney general bid.

His campaign called the attack "petty."

"Rich has spent his entire career fighting for people who were ripped off by special interests, which is why President Obama entrusted him to take on fraudsters like ECOT as the first director of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau," spokesman Mike Gwin said. "Democrats across the state want this primary campaign to be about a candidate's vision and a comparison of accomplishments, not petty attacks - that's how we win in November."

Rosenberger Endorsement: House Speaker Cliff Rosenberger has a candidate in the race to replace Rep. Terry Johnson (R-McDermott).

The Clarksville Republican is backing Gina Hall Collinsworth, an adjunct professor at Shawnee State University and the co-owner of a small multimedia company. She has also been active in combatting the opioid epidemic in southern Ohio.

"The drug epidemic is tearing away at the fabric of communities all over Ohio," Mr. Rosenberger said. "Gina Collinsworth has seen firsthand what this epidemic can do. We've had a great advocate for care and treatment in Representative Terry Johnson, and I can think of no one better to try and fill his shoes than Gina."

Added Ms. Collinsworth: "I am a person who cares about people and our communities. There is no better place to live, work and raise a family than our beautiful part of the country and we believe the best days for Southern Ohio are ahead. If we work together, we can keep moving our people forward and improving opportunities for everyone, because we all want to have a better life, and make a difference for our families."

Ms. Collinsworth officially kicked off her campaign this week.

She faces fellow Republicans Shawn Hacker and Justin Pizzulli in the primary race.

Super PAC: U.S. Rep. Jim Renacci (R-Alliance) will have a Super PAC in his corner for his U.S. Senate bid.

Ohio First PAC was formed on Jan. 21 by Julie Dozier of Virginia. However, POLITICO reported that it will be run by Republican operative Blaise Hazelwood of Grassroots Targeting.

The campaign of U.S. Sen. Sherrod Brown (D-Cleveland) is fundraising off the news, saying the PAC "will pull out all of the stops to deceive Ohioans about Sherrod's record."

The Ohio Democratic Party, meanwhile, blasted the congressman.

"Unfortunately for Renacci, the millions he gets in special interest support will only remind Ohio voters who he's truly been serving in Washington -- and it's not them," spokeswoman Lara Sisselman said.

Mr. Renacci's campaign did not respond to a request for comment.

Caucus Support: With Rep. Dave Greenspan (R-Westlake) potentially facing a primary in the proxy battle for control of the speaker's gavel next year, Speaker Rosenberger and "a dozen other legislators throughout the state of Ohio" are joining the Westlake Republican for a fundraiser on Saturday.

"We hope you can join us to provide a strong showing of support for Dave in lieu of his primary election," his campaign said in an email.

The lawmakers, which will include Rep. Sarah LaTourette (R-Chagrin Falls), Rep. Scott Lipps (R-Franklin), Rep. Theresa Gavarone (R-Bowling Green) and Rep. Rick Carfagna (R-Westerville), will hold a press conference before door-to-door campaigning.

The only other candidate to file for the race thus far is Democrat Cassimir Svigelj, according to the Cuyahoga County Board of Elections.

Senate Race: Businessman Mike Gibbons has added another backer to his growing list of endorsements.

Montgomery County Sheriff Phil Plummer, who also leads the county Republican Party and is expected to campaign to replace term-limited Rep. Michael Henne (R-Clayton), is the latest official to announce his support for Mr. Gibbon's U.S. Senate bid.

"Mike has real world experience on how to create jobs and balance budgets," Sheriff Plummer said. "Because he's a true outsider, Mike's hands down the best candidate to defeat Sherrod Brown in November."

Gubernatorial Campaign: The Republican parties in Highland and Holmes counties are the latest county GOP factions to back the gubernatorial campaign of Attorney General Mike DeWine.

"It made sense to support this conservative ticket in the primary so we can get down to the real task at hand - beating the progressive liberal Democrats in November," Executive Chair Paulette Donley said.

Added Rob Hovis, chairman of the Holmes County Republican Party: "It was clear to Holmes Republicans that Mike DeWine and Jon Husted are the conservative leaders our party and state needs in 2018."

Victory Fund: The LGBTQ Victory Fund announced that it is backing Rep. Nickie Antonito (D-Lakewood), the state's first openly gay lawmaker, in her bid for the upper chamber.

She, along with Arkansas schoolteacher Tippi McCullough, received "spotlight candidate" status.

"LGBTQ people are severely underrepresented in both the Ohio and Arkansas state legislatures, resulting in the introduction of anti-LGBTQ bills and continued opposition to equal protections for our community," said Victory Fund President and CEO Annise Parker.

"Both Rep. Nickie Antonio and Tippi McCullough received Victory Fund's spotlight endorsement because of their strong candidacies and their commitment to bringing LGBTQ equality to their states. We are thrilled to have two LGBTQ women running for these important seats, and expect both to make history come Election Day."

Rep. Antonio faces a primary race against Rep. Martin Sweeney (D-Cleveland).

Outdoor Advertising: The Buckeye Institute is lending its support to an effort to bring right-to-work laws to Ohio.

The group has purchased outdoor advertising, including a billboard, calling for worker voting rights.

"Every morning, hardworking men and women go to work on our behalf-they teach our children, take care of the sick and elderly, repair our roads, and issue our drivers licenses. While these people go to work for us, far too few of them have ever had the opportunity to vote for the unions to which they must pay dues or fees," said Robert Alt, president and CEO of The Buckeye Institute.

Businessman Detained: Two Youngstown-area lawmakers are calling on Gov. John Kasich to help fight for the release of an area businessman facing deportation.

In a letter to the governor, Sen. Joe Schiavoni (D-Boardman), who is running to replace Mr. Kasich, and Rep. Michele Lepore-Hagan (D-Youngstown) called on him to "use any and all state resources to ensure the just treatment" of Amer "Al Adi" Othman.

"Mr. Othman is a longtime Youngstown resident, an entrepreneur, and a father of four children," they wrote. "While he is not yet a citizen of our country, he embodies all that we value as Americans and as Ohioans. Opening several businesses and employing dozens over the past two decades, Mr. Othman has uplifted the downtown Youngstown community and touched the lives of countless individuals through his generosity."

Agency Briefs: Secretary of State Eases Campaign Funding Info; Auditor; Labor Force; ODJFS; ODA; Aging

Secretary of State Jon Husted released an online tool to make it easier to access and analyze campaign contributions and spending.

The tool, called FACE Ohio, is an application programming interface that provides users with a data feed of campaign finance data, which can be analyzed and presented how the user wants.

"This resource brings more accountability to government and our political system," Secretary Husted said in a statement. "The public now can better organize and make sense of the way campaigns are being financed in Ohio."

State Auditor: Dave Yost released a special audit this week of the Village of Mt. Sterling, detailing almost $1 million in illegal spending from the village. The special audit caps a two-year investigation that included the convictions of four former administrators and employees.

The investigation began in 2016 when county officials alerted the auditor's office to alleged theft involving village property.

"This report marks the final chapter of one of the most deplorable and devastating cases of local government corruption in recent memory," Auditor Yost said. "Hopefully taxpayers can find some solace in the knowledge that those responsible are answering for their crimes and will never again have a chance to ransack the community."

The special audit orders 11 people to repay a combined $998,050, including $871,545 tied directly to former Village Administrator Joseph Johnson, who used village funds to buy personal items and paid himself $368,682 in excess of his salary over four years.

In a separate release, the auditor's office said almost $5,000 went missing from the City of Maple Heights Building Department in Cuyahoga County. The audit found customer payments collected by the department were not recorded in accounting records or deposited into the bank account.

A $4,961 finding for recovery was issued against clerk Sonia Beaman and former finance director Irene Crowell. Former city accountant Jana Crosby is jointly liable for $2,356.

Another audit released this week ordered a former employee of the City of Northwood in Wood County to repay $650 stolen from customer payments.

Former City Clerk Julie Jagodzinski pleaded guilty to theft in office on Dec. 4. Auditors issued a finding for recovery after the city investigated missing building rental records and found a $650 shortage in revenue.

Labor Force: The state's unemployment rate rose in December in all but one county compared to November, and remained unchanged in that county, the state reported.

Nine counties had rates at or below 3.5%, including Mercer, Holmes, Delaware, Auglaize, Hancock, Madison, Putnam, Union and Wyandot.

Five counties had rates above 7%, including Monroe, Meigs, Noble, Morgan and Ottawa.

Job and Family Services: The department announced Ohio will take part in a national research project designed to boost recruitment and retention of child welfare staff. The project, led by the Quality Improvement Center for Workforce Development, will include agencies in Champaign, Clark, Hamilton, Knox, Montgomery, Summit, Trumbull and Wayne counties.

"It is an honor to be chosen," said ODJFS Director Cynthia Dungey. "Ohio is one of only a handful of states with a state-supervised, county-administered child welfare system. That and our diverse geography put us in a unique position to contribute insights into worker turnover and staffing challenges, which impact every aspect of a child welfare agency's work. We're excited to help strategize solutions."

Agriculture: The department reminded farmers of revised labels and new requirements for the application of dicamba herbicide products this year. Revisions approved by the U.S. EPA in October included products that are now classified as restricted use, meaning only licensed applicators can purchase them, and that applicators must complete training.

"Like any other product, we want to ensure licensed applicators are properly following label directions as they get ready for this growing season," said Matt Beal, chief of the ODA Plant Health Division. "This not only helps assure the safe use of pesticides, it also helps prevent misuse and mishandling."

Aging: The deadline for nominations to the 2017 Ohio Senior Citizens Hall of Fame has been extended to Feb. 5.

The induction ceremony will be held in May, during Older Americans Month.

"Ohio is made stronger by the dedication, kindness and compassion of its citizens," said ODA Director Beverly Laubert. "Inductees to the Ohio Senior Citizens Hall of Fame exemplify the hard work and contribution of older Ohioans, as well as the vital roles they play in our communities and our state."

Court Strikes Down Part Of Precious Metals Law; Attorney Indefinitely Suspended; Law Professors Urge Passage Of Death Penalty Bills...

The Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals this week dealt a blow to a state law regulating the purchasing of precious metals.

In a unanimous ruling, the court struck down a portion of the Precious Metals Dealers Act, finding a provision of the law violates the Fourth Amendment's prohibition against unreasonable searches and seizures.

Specifically, the court targeted language that states, "All books, forms, and records, and all other sources of information with regard to the business of the licensee, shall at all times be available for inspection by the division for the purpose of assuring that the business of the licensee is being transacted in accordance with law."

"The provisions' seemingly unlimited scope, along with the grant of free access to such information at all times, does not sufficiently constrain the discretion of the inspectors," the court wrote in its decision.

However, the court did uphold two other challenged provisions in the law, including one requiring licensees to detail a description of all precious metals purchases which is provided to police each business day. Another provision requiring a detailed description of all precious metals purchased along with identifying information about the seller was also upheld.

The 1851 Center for Constitutional Law, which took up the case in 2012 on behalf of two central Ohio businesses, hailed the ruling.

"This ruling essentially affirms that while government may request some basic record-keeping, reporting, and inspection of inventory purchased from the public that has been reported stolen, state officials cannot walk into a business without a warrant or evidence of wrong-doing and demand to review our papers, cell phones, laptops, or other business records," Executive Director Maurice Thompson said.

Attorney Suspended: An attorney who demanded settlements for non-existent clients while he was under suspension has been suspended indefinitely.

In a 5-2 per curiam decision, the court handed down a lesser penalty to Rosel Hurley than was recommended by the Board of Professional Conduct, which found he should be disbarred.

"Under these circumstances, an indefinite suspension serves to protect the public while also leaving open the possibility that with treatment, Hurley might one day be able to return to the competent, ethical, and professional practice of law," the decision reads.

During a two-year suspension in 2015 based on a criminal conviction, Mr. Hurley sent "demand letters" to employers with job openings that included language disqualifying applicants with criminal backgrounds. He would offer to accept $500 in lieu of filing a complaint with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the high court's media arm reported.

Chief Justice Maureen O'Connor and Justice Terrence O'Donnell dissented in the case and would have accepted the board's recommendation of disbarment.

Death Penalty: More than 50 professors of law are urging the passage of stalled legislation (HB 81 & SB 40) to exempt the seriously mentally ill from the death penalty.

In a letter to members of the House Criminal Justice Committee, they said those suffering from the illnesses covered under the bill are underserving of the death penalty.

"Those who commit violent crimes while in the grip of a psychotic delusion, hallucination, or other disabling psychological condition lack the judgment, understanding, or self-control to be labeled the worst of the worst or deserving of death," they wrote.

Murder Case: Attorney General Mike DeWine announced that a Washington County man has been indicted in a murder case nearly 26 years old.

Randy Slider, 48, was indicted on three counts of aggravated murder and one count of murder in relation to the 1992 death of Patsy Sparks.

Mr. Slider is currently serving a 40-year prison term on unrelated charges of kidnapping, robbery and sexual assault.

Juvenile Facility: In a letter to Cuyahoga County officials, the ACLU of Ohio and the Juvenile Justice Coalition are calling for issues at the Cuyahoga County Juvenile Detention Center to be addressed.

"We urge county leadership to collaborate with juvenile justice experts from outside the county and conduct a thorough assessment of the underlying problems at the facility," said Mike Brickner, senior policy director at the ACLU of Ohio. "Adolescent development professionals need to examine the facility from top to bottom and recommend proactive changes. Then, to ensure the recommendations are implemented, there must be accountability measures in place, which have been seriously lacking at the detention center in years past."

Bench Cards: The Ohio Supreme Court has made available bench cards to aid courts in recognizing the nexus between human trafficking, domestic violence and sexual violence, its media arm reported.

The National Human Trafficking Hotline last year identified 191 cases of human trafficking in Ohio, according to the court.

Ohio Business: TimkenSteel, Sherwin-Williams 2017 Sales Top Last Year's; AEP, PolyOne, Others Report Financial Results

TimkenSteel announced Friday net sales for the year were $1.3 billion, but the company posted a net loss of $44.3 million.

That's an improvement over 2016, when the Canton-based company posted $869.5 million in sales and a net loss of $105.5 million for 2016.

TimkenSteel attributed the year-over-year improvement to recovering energy and industrial end-market demand, new business and favorable raw material spread.

In the fourth quarter that ended Dec. 31, net sales increased $126.7 million, or 59% above the previous-year period, the company said.

"In the fourth quarter, we had record productivity despite fewer operating days due to maintenance and traditional customer seasonality. Our results also are beginning to reflect the impact of several price increases, with structural EBITDA improving over the third quarter," Tim Timken, chairman, CEO and president said in a statement.

Sherwin-Williams: The Cleveland-based company saw a sales increase of 26.4% to a record $14.98 billion for the full year.

The total, which is compared to 2016, was bolstered by a sales increase of 43% in fourth quarter, Sherwin-Williams reported. Fourth-quarter sales came in at a record $3.98 billion.

The largest bumps came in net sales of the consumer brands group, which increased by 41% in the year and 89% in the quarter, largely to the inclusion of Valspar sales since June, the company said.

"2017 was a year of record sales, net income, earnings per share, cash and EBITDA, but it will best be remembered as the year in which we joined forces with Valspar," Chairman, CEO and President John G. Morikis said. "The enormous amount of effort and energy invested over the past seven months in bringing these two great companies together, strengthening our customer relationships, defining the right organizational structure and building momentum in every line of business is transforming Sherwin-Williams into a faster growing, financially stronger and more profitable enterprise."

AEP: The utility posted more than $1.9 billion in earnings to round out the year.

Meanwhile GAAP earnings per share for the year were $3.68, compared with $1.24 and $611 million in 2016, AEP reported.

Year-end 2017 operating earnings were $1.808 billion or $3.68 per share, compared with operating earnings of $1.937 billion or $3.94 per share last year.

"Investments in our core, regulated businesses to enhance service for our customers continue to support solid earnings growth. We delivered strong earnings for 2017 despite the negative impacts of mild temperatures and the loss of revenue from the competitive generation assets that we sold early in the year," Chairman, President and CEO Nicholas K. Akins said.

In 2017, the company said it delivered a total shareholder return of nearly 21%, which exceeds the 10.6% total return for the S&P 500 Electric Utilities Index.

PolyOne: The company on Friday reported a full-year revenue increase of 10% to $3.2 billion, which was driven largely by broad organic growth.

GAAP earnings per share for 2017 were $2.11 compared to $1.96 in the previous year, the company said.

In the fourth quarter, revenue increased 15% to $801 million "as a result of increased momentum from commercial resource investments and a 3% contribution from acquisitions," according to a PolyOne release.

United Bancorp: Diluted earnings per share for the full year were $0.75, which is a 5.63% increase over 2016, the company reported. The calculation excludes the net deferred tax asset revaluation. It also recorded a forward dividend yield of 3.62% and net income of $3.5 million for 2017.

SBC Financial Group: Net income increased 74% in the fourth quarter to $4 million, or $0.27 per share, the company reported. For the full year, net income was $11.1 million, which is a 26% increase compared to 2016.

Subject: Deadline TODAY COB: Co-sponsor Request: Alternative Migrant Farm Labor Housing

**Reminder: Cosponsor deadline TODAY at 5pm****

MEMORANDUM

To: All House Members

From: State Representative Dick Stein

Date: January 23, 2018

RE: Co-Sponsor Request: Alternative Migrant Farm Labor Housing

I will soon be introducing legislation to allow for alternative housing options for those engaged in agriculture who provide lodging to their migratory workers. With our current labor shortage, many farmers across Ohio rely on domestic migratory and H2A guest workers in order to harvest their crop and feed Ohio.

This legislation was brought to me by a group of muck farmers in Willard, Huron County, who together employ upwards of 800 seasonal workers annually. This area specializes in produce—cucumbers, peppers, squash, lettuce—crops that require people, not machines, to harvest. Ben Wiers, of Willard says, “Without the Hispanic labor force, we wouldn’t be able to grow crops.” While all farm laborers are protected by the 1983 Migrant and Seasonal Agriculture Workers Protection Act, employers using H2A labor must provide additional services including housing at no cost. This housing must be in compliance with 29 USC 1823 & 29 USC 1910.145; enforced by the Occupational Health and Safety Administration. These sections include an important exemption to these regulations;

This section does not apply to any person who, in the ordinary course of that person's business, regularly provides housing on a commercial basis to the general public and who provides housing to migrant agriculture workers of the same character and on the same or comparable terms and conditions as is provided to the general public.

Does this mean a property owner may rent to the public and rent to persons engaged in agriculture? No, Ohio Code 3733 dictates the specific type of housing that groups of persons engaged in agriculture must live in. No matter what a structure was built as, if this structure were to house five or more "persons engaged in agriculture", it is now considered an agriculture labor camp and subject to new building standards.

"Agricultural labor camp" means one or more buildings or structures, trailers, tents, or vehicles, together with any land appertaining thereto, established, operated, or used as temporary living quarters for two or more families or five or more persons intending to engage in or engaged in agriculture or related food processing, whether occupancy is by rent, lease, or mutual agreement.

"Agricultural labor camp" does not include a hotel or motel, or a manufactured home park.

The bill I am introducing will apply a similar exemption that is applied to hotels, for residential structures. For a firm or farm to draw this residential dwelling exemption, the structure must adhere to: 1) the Ohio residential building code, 2) local building codes or ordinances, 3) minimum housing standards set forth by OHSA and 4) shall be inspected in a similar manner as agriculture labor camps and hotels currently are. These employers shall also provide their workers and applicable property managers with lease agreements spelling out the roles of each party in the arrangement.

Please consider co-sponsoring this legislation that is pro-business, pro-labor, and has the ability to strengthen communities. The goal of this legislation is to encourage the rental or purchase of existing structures to expand farm operations, rather than only being able to build sleep-away camp style cabins that are geographically segregated from basic community amenities.

If you are interested in co-sponsoring, please contact Matthew Noonan at 614-466-9628 or Matthew.Noonan@ohiohouse.gov. The deadline to co-sponsor this bill is Monday January 29th, at 5PM.
